PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a summons.

On April 3, 2023, a U.S. probation officer reviewed all conditions of supervision with Mr. Gomez. He signed a copy of his judgement and sentence acknowledging an understanding of his supervised release conditions and was provided a copy.

On December 16, 2024, prior to his transfer to the low-risk caseload, a U.S. probation officer reviewed the expectations of the low-risk caseload with Mr. Gomez via phone, at which time he was reminded that all conditions of his supervision remain in effect while on the low-risk caseload, but for the need for preauthorization to travel within the United States.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance

According to the report filed by the Washington State Patrol, Mr. Gomez was contacted during a traffic stop and is alleged to have been operating his vehicle under the influence of alcohol, as evidenced by a strong odor of alcohol emitting from his person, bloodshot, watery eyes, and a breath alcohol content of approximately 0.128.
